To Whom it May Concern,

I, Stephen Goslin a retired police officer from the Town of Weymouth. I am writing this letter on behalf of Justin Chappell. I worked a long side Justin for the Weymouth Police Department from 2015 until his departure.

Justin was older than most when he began his career as a police officer. He was 35. I had been on the job since 1999 and was a senior officer on the 12-8 (midnight shift) upon his arrival.

Justin came to the department not only with life experiences but also with 5 years of Military experience as a Sergeant in the Army.

He had two deployments to Afghanistan in that 5 years.

Based on his age and experience he was an immediate asset to the police department as well as our shift. Justin was commendable in the handling of all aspects of the job. He was also helpful in working with the younger officers.

As his career slowly blossomed he became not only a fellow officer but a friend. We worked two days of a four day rotation together. We would talk at length not only about work related topics but we also exchanged stories of our respective personal lives.

Justin is a proud father and husband to his wife Kristen and 10 year old daughter [REDACTED]. I've had the pleasure of meeting both several times over the years.

Albeit both of us have left the WPD we've stayed in touch via text, phone conversation as well as meeting for the occasional lunch. I did not socialize with many people from work. Justin was one of few that I had a friendship with on and off the job.

The incident involving Justin while unfortunate does not encapsulate him as a person. He was a tremendous police officer. He was and still is respected by his peers and the community alike. His departure from the department was a loss in many ways.

Justin has returned to school in pursuit of a degree in Psychology.
He has strong family values and is looking to move on to the next chapter.

Justin is a fantastic person and a great friend. His character speaks for itself.
I'm aware my opinion is just that, an opinion. That being said I believe that Justin having had to deal with this situation is punishment enough. Any future discipline in this matter would be egregious. All parties should move on and Justin should be able to pursue another profession and put this all behind him.

Respectfully,

Stephen Goslin.

Dear Honorable Judge Burroughs,

I write to you today on behalf of Justin Chappell with the hope that my insights into their character may offer a different perspective on the person standing before you. I have known Justin for over 25 years and during this time, I have come to know them as a person of good character, integrity and honesty.

In my experience with Justin, he has always displayed good moral character, a commitment to his family and a willingness to help others. I have observed Justin faithfully serve as a soldier and lovingly as a devoted Husband and Father. I also know him to be a caring son, brother and uncle. Justin has been a member of my family for over 18 years and assumes the role of uncle by proxy to my daughter. I have witnessed Justin be a kind, patient and fair humored individual.

I can confirm that in the time that I have known him, Justin Chappell has been a reliable, trustworthy and decent person. I respectfully request that you take this letter into consideration while you make a fair decision.

Sincerely,

Kimberly O'Connor

The Honorable Allison Burroughs:

My name is Patricia Gannon, I am writing to offer a character reference for Justin Chappell, whom I have had the privilege of knowing for twenty years, and during that time Justin became my nephew by marriage. With the court date July 11, 2024 approaching, I am compelled to share my observations of his character based on our extensive interactions.

Throughout our shared history, Justin has been a wonderful father to my great niece, [REDACTED] Chappell age 10 years, and husband to my niece Kristen (his wife). Justin risked his life in every job he has had to support his family, from his tenure in the Army, (multiple tours overseas) and private security, (also overseas outside of the US,) and as a police officer. As a clinician I have seen that post-traumatic stress disorder is often direct result of all these jobs, and can contribute to struggles with many aspects of life including job performance.

Justin steps into help care for his disabled mother, and assure her safety with kindness and compassion. As a caretaker for his daughter, [REDACTED], he is present and caring. As a pediatric clinician, it has been my experience that the best outcome for children is to have both parents in the home and present in their lives.

It is my sincere hope that the court takes this letter into consideration. Understanding the serious nature of these charges, it is important to consider how the sentence could profoundly impact Justin Chappell, and his family. I am convinced that Justin Chappell will view this situation as an opportunity for personal growth and with right support and guidance, Justin will remain a continued constructive, contributing member of society and our family.

Should you require any further information or wish to discuss this matter in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,

Patricia Gannon, RN, MS, CPN, CNRN

To whom it may concern,

I have know Justin since he has been 17 or 18. He is a beautiful person and a lovely gentleman. He would help Kristen take care of her grandmother Ellie, he would make sure that Ellie had sufficient groceries for the week.

He is such a wonderful Dad to his daughter [REDACTED] and he takes very good care of his family. In all my years of knowing Justin I have never seen an angry attitude or any violence from him.

Regards,
Karen Lamie
